

Labor Force Participation Rate (LFP) by Gender

While male LFP has remained steady and at higher levels than female LFP, the latter has continuously increased in virtually all regions.

Source: OECD Labor Statistics, 1980-2017

Labor Force Participation Rate = Number of people available for work as a percentage of the total working age population.